

Rana Hanna Handal
Honorable Mention
Ibn Khaldun Essay Contest 2008

Rana graduated in June 2007 with a bachelor's degree in Computer Information Technology and a minor in Commerce. She has been working as a freelance website and software developer since 2004. Hana worked as a project coordinator for the Palestinian Women Empowerment Project funded by WACC and the webmaster assistance for the project website www.women-space.org . She also assisted in a movie translation from French to Arabic. Rana worked as a program coordinator to promote Christmas season activities in Bethlaham. She is currently working as a grants system, information management, and GIS specialist for ARD Institute Projects, funded by USAID, and focusing on civic engagement projects serving the NGOs, municipalities, and village councils in the Palestinian Territories.

Rana has an Electronic Business diploma and MCSE degree (Microsoft Certified System Engineer). She will pursue her Masters degree in International Cooperation and Development in September 2009.